

Private Thoughts At A Basketball Game

Maybe it is true that one goes to a ball game to concentrate on the game alone, but other thoughts drift through one's mind as a confession by this spectator proves.

Gosh, look at those good-looking Middlesex girls! Look! Why there are Rosanna Jones and Ruth Ruffin of last year's team. Wonder where they popped up from...Whoo! Woo!

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

Look at that cute sailor sitting over there. I see at least a half-dozen girls scheming to catch his eye!.....Rah Bailey! Ray for Madge. Boy, is she good!....Just take a look at Bobby Perry's toboggan, will 'ya--red and black!

ODDS AND ENDS

My, I wonder where Sue got those cute bracelets.....Ouch! That piece of orange peel hurt....Will I have some pecans? Sure..... Ray for Bailey!..... What cute fur mittens that girl has..Have a cough drop? My throat is sore from yelling I can hardly talk.....

TEAM! TEAM!

Ray, Bailey! Here come the boys!..... Come on team!..... Absolutely, yonder's the loudest shirt I've ever seen--red and black checked.

(Con't next col.)

SPORTS ON REVIEW

Middlesex Overpowers Bailey In Doubleheader

Middlesex, paced by Stallings for girls and Driver for boys, defeated Bailey boys and girls respectively 14-13 and 37-18, on a double-header played here Friday night Dec. 1.

High scorers for team were girls, M. Brantley; boys, M. Lamm.

Gosh, did Linwood take a tumble then!..... Hey! Keep that ball away from my head, boy!

Oh Pshaw!! I'm sure we can beat them next time. After all, I had fun even though we didn't win. O. Beard

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE FOR COMING SEASON

Basketball, absorbing the interest of more than half the students in high school, is going to be scheduled this season from the first game, December first, to February twenty-third, says Mr. M. W. Weaver, coach.

At the principals' meeting in Nashville, Mr. Weaver signed all Nash county schools except Nashville and Whitakers. The following schedule will be observed:

Dec. 1	Middlesex	home
8	Castalia	home
15	Coopers	away
21	Spring H.	away
Jan. 5	Coopers	home
12	Castalia	away
19	Middlesex	away
26	Bonvenue	home
Feb. 2	Bonvenue	away
9	Red Oak	away
16	Spring H.	home
23	Red Oak	away

"In Photographs Only Can Yesterday Live"

LET — —

HOLDEN STUDIO

MAKE YOURS A GLORIOUS

TRIUMPH OF THE YEARS

Raymond V. Peters, Manager

PHONE 2471

WILSON, N.C.

