

HERE AND NOW

Name The Student

ANSWERS PG. 9

Because of the extra coal required to heat the auditorium, weekly chapel periods will be discontinued until warmer weather.

Members of the PTA will hold their sixth meeting of the year tonight at 7 o'clock.

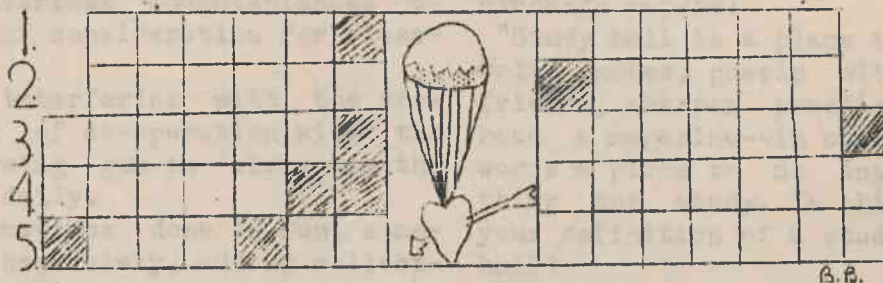

Mrs. Winifred Mercer Wall has replaced Mrs. George Finch as home economics instructor.

Evelyn Poole, coming to Bailey from Swepsonville, North Carolina, has joined the staff of the Bugle as assistant artist.

Those students averaging honor roll for the first semester were Beth Bissette, Betty Doris Sanders, Jackie Lois Edwards, Barbara Farmer, Ben Etheridge, Jean B. Glover, and Octavia Beard.

Mrs. Howard Farmer's tenth grade class and Mrs. Laurine Lassiter's ninth grade boys have dedicated their "Citation for Patriotic Devotion" in the 1945 War Fund Campaign to FRED-DIE GLOVER and BERNICE FARMER respectively.

600 pieces of clothing were donated to the war relief during the clothing drive. $36.03 was given by the students and teachers to the infantile paralysis during the March of Dimes Campaign. Donations are still being received for both drives.

1. a. 10th boy
b. blue "derby"
c. light brown hair
d. lazy, indifferent
2. a. 9th girl
b. timid
c. blonde hair
d. formerly of Mt. Pleasant
3. a. 8 B girl
b. small
c. light brown hair
d. quiet
4. a. 10th girl
b. BUGLE helper
c. long, blonde hair
d. studious
5. a. 9th boy
b. tall
c. unusually polite
d. light brown hair

Class Work Averages B For First Semester

Excluding journalism, the subject having the highest term average in high school is shorthand with an average of 86. Second on the list is typing with a standard of 85. Agriculture and science, biology and chemistry, rank third, each supporting 84, while geography and home economics have 83. The lowest grade was made by the civics classes with 79 term average.

ELEVENTH GRADE

The most intellectual group for the first semester was the eleventh grade, having an average of 85. Ten B and eight A were second since their average was 84.

Those making honor roll

for the third six weeks were Jackie Lois Edwards, 10 A; Beth Bissette, 10 B; Ben Etheridge, 9 B; Jean B. Glover, 8A; and Astor Ray Finch, 8 B.

Perfect attendance for the first semester were made by the following students: Fanny R. Bissette, Phyllis J. Finch, Betty D. Sanders, Keith Glover, Pete Stone, Al Williams, Brooks Vick, Arleen Langston, Clara F. Williams, Jackie L. Edwards, Millard Morgan, Octavia Beard, Louise Burnette, Ruth Farmer, Marie Lamm, Ben Etheridge, Willard Finch, Billy Morgan, Jean B. Glover, Jean Pace, Mavis Stone, Scott Lewis, Mildred Finch, Dorothy Jeans, and Estie J. Lamm.