

Actions Cause Others Headaches

Many thoughtless actions of the Bailey High School boys and girls are causing various inconveniences to others and displaying a need of consideration for classmates and teachers.

Tinkering with lockers, interfering with the property of the teachers, lack of co-operation with the student librarians, and chewing gum on class are the leading misdemeanors noticed daily.

These unthinking acts, sometimes done in fun, sometimes not serious when taken separately, add up collectively to marking one as a poor citizen.

No one wants an undesirable label of his conduct attached to him throughout life. This may be avoided by beginning now, students, not tomorrow, to stop and think before acting.

Susie Wobblers

Robbing the cradle.....

Jackie Lois Edwards has an idea that her latest crush, Bobby, is playing "hard to get." Every morning when Bobby enters the truck, he is greeted by a smile, wink, and cherry "Hello, Bobby" from Jackie. Bobby, a cute, smilingly handsome, second grader, merely blushes and rushes to the end of the bus.

ley and Dolly Bunn for their swell shooting at the games. Ditto to Janice Bunn and Ruth Farmer for such wonderful guarding.

Put'em in Behind the Eight Ball --all those who spread classroom gossip.

Bon Jour.....

May your '46 Valentine be filled with happiness.

Question of the month.....

What Do You Dislike Most in the Opposite Sex?

Mary Grey Wiggs: A show off.

Leslie Dew: Female smoke-stack.

Peggy Brannon: Conceit

Billy Morgan: A big mouth and a stuck-up

Tableau.....

Place--front porch swing

Characters--boy and girl

Time--moonlight night

Action--boy shows girl how his cuff buttons glow in the dark.

Cheering Dept.....

Hats off to--Madge Brant-

Editor----Betty D. Sanders
Bus. Mgr.----Beth Bissette
Asst. Mgr.---Kenneth Batts
Make-up ed.--J. L. Edwards
Mimeoscope Ed.--C. M. Vick
Sports---Jacqueline Collie
Circulation---Lois R. Pace
Proof Reader-Phyllis Finch
Vocational---Octavia Beard
Keith Glover
Art-----Evelyn Poole
Advisers-----J. Farmer
L. Lassiter

Seen By Exchange

The staff reprints the following editorials from exchange papers:

"Study hall is a place to write notes, gossip with friends, sharpen pencils, read a magazine--in other words a place to do anything but study. Is this your definition of a study hall?"

"If study halls were for the things mentioned above, they wouldn't be a part of school time. You are given a study hall in which to prepare your lessons. Probably many of the students wouldn't have to study in the evenings if they would make use of their study halls.

"Try studying on your next study hall. Who knows? It may become a prosperous habit".

"The Quaker"
Salem High School

"-----The function of education today is to cultivate human understanding permeated by charity and love. In all of our learning therefore, let us learn the art of peace, so that never again will the lives of the people be bathed in cruelty, pain, and blood."

"Jackson Journal"
Stonewall Jackson High
Charleston, West Virginia

Thought Of The Month

"DO UNTO OTHERS,
AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO
UNTO YOU."