Six Students Win Typing Awards

Six of the Typing II students win C. T. (competent typist) pins on a ten-minute speed test.

Typing at a rate of 50 words per minute and not exceeding 5 errors, seven students are eligible for C. T. pins given by the Gregg Publishing Company: Rae Bissette, 60 words with 2 errors; Madge Brantley, 57 with 4 errors; Daisy Liles, 54 with 5 errors; Odell Manning, 52 with 4 errors; Janice Bunn, 51 with 2 errors; and Phyllis Finch, 51 with 4 errors.

The remaining second-year typists ranged from 42 to 48 words per minute.

Navy Doctor Opens Office In Bailey

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Wright have moved to Bailey, where Dr. Wright will practice medicine. Temporarily he will have for his office the space in the rear of Etheridge Drug Store formerly used by Dr. Daniels.

Since Mrs. Wright is a registered nurse, she will assist her husband in the office.

For the present they have an apartment in the home of Mrs. Rebecca Wylie.

Dr. and Mrs. Wright come from Eastern North Carolina.

Plans for converting a basement room into a projector room, and thereby eliminating the cost of black out shades and the disturbing of neighboring classes, is being anticipated by the school.

A room set aside for movie projection proves more successful declares 81 per cent of teachers in the United States and Canada who have used the film as a form of instruction.

NO SHADES NEEDED

Darkness being an essential, remodeling of a basement room will eliminate cost of black out shades. It is hoped that the county will be able to furnish funds for purchasing needed chairs or other equipment needed.

Headquarters Hike Jr. Red Cross Quota

Filling 45 Junior Red Cross gift boxes for overseas, Bailey students reached the goal set for the school this year. This number was three times that designated for last year.

Each room was asked to fill three boxes that will be sent the children in war-torn countries for Christmas.

Miss Bissetts, teacher—sponsor of the student Red Cross council, in previewing the projects that a council can participate in submits the following list:

1. Local projects--holiday favors for county homes, bound book length novels, a first aid room in school, improvements in school toilets.

2. National projects--services to military hospi-

CHOIR TO GIVE CANTATA

On Sunday evening, December 22, 1946, the Methodist choir will present a Christmas Cantata at the Methodist Church.

In addition to the Cantata the program will include Christmas carols.

Special parts have not yet been assigned for the Cantata, but Mrs. I. T. Poole, choir director, expects to assign these parts to members of the choir soon.
