

THANKSGIVING IN SPIRIT

Most pupils take their blessings for granted. They raise their voices in complaint but not in thankfulness.

The Pilgrims gave an example that all should follow when they set aside one day in which to "Count Your Blessings" and give thanks for these.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving. Let us pattern after the Pilgrims and take time to show a spirit of thankfulness by offering a silent prayer for the many, many blessings that are ours.

In Memory Of

Student body and teachers of Bailey School wish to express their deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Farmer over the loss of their daughter Peggy, who died at the home in Bailey, November 3. She was a member of the tenth grade and was active in school activities.

Susie Babbles

Word to the wise.....

For some tips on good grooming and taste, it might be worth-while to notice Mary Ann Miller's clothes. They are neat, different, and very attractive.

Puzzle Dept:.....

She's tall, wears a grin
That lights up her face;
She walks with an odd,
Almost coltish grace.

Her hair's short and curly.
(It looks best that way.)
Now let's all join saying,
"She's sure 'heap okay!"

GUESS WHO?

Prize Gag.....

This is one on Maxine Med-

lin. As she was thirsty one day on home economics class, she asked Janice Brnatley to bring her a glass of water. Janice, before bringing it, added a heaping dose of soda to improve the flavor. Maxine took a big swallow of it and suddenly decided the walls of the department needed spraying. 'Nuff said.

Justice.....

Jean Williams says she'll never cheer for Middlesex again. It seems two of the Bailey gang grabbed her and left her burning when they caught her 'rooting' for the wrong team.

Visitors.....

Two students from other schools visiting Bailey High recently were Eloise Edwards, Spring Hope High, and Janet Gay, Hugh Moroson. Maybe they've been hearing about Bailey's merits and wanted to see for themselves....h-u-m???????

Red

answer to puzzle:
Patsy Lamm

BAILEY BUGLE
Published Monthly

by
JOURNALISM CLASS

and
COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT
Bailey, North Carolina

Member
C. S. P. A.