Home Ec. Giblets

Mrs. Howard Wilson's greatest pride was a new General Electric refrigerator delivered to her home November 26. It's the new Deluxe model.

Jean Pace's latest admission is that she "knows how to smooch." She covers up by saying, "I-----I--- I m-----mean I know how to smell smooch; no---no, spell smooch."

Rosamond Brantley, though tom-boyish and mischievous, may turn out to be a very "sweet" young lady.

Betty Jean Lamm takes great interest in sewing. Maybe some day she will be a real seamstress.

CLUB MEMBERS PLACE ORDERS FOR EMBLEMS

Since the FHA club is affiliated with the State and the National Future Home Makers of America, the members had the privilege of ordering pins, bracelets, and "T" shirts with the official club emblem on them.

The pins and bracelets are of different prices according to the difference in the material. The members had a choice of sterling silver, rolled gold plate, or 10 K gold.

Dorothy Ann Rooker ordered a "T" shirt; Elizabeth Glover and Pauline Johnson, bracelets; Maxine Medlin and Octavia Beard, pins; and Ruth Farmer, a pen and guard.

Sewing

Looking here and looking there,
Girls are sewing everywhere:
Skirts, blouses, dresses,
and such;
For me right now it's just too much.

I don't know why I can't do it too.
This fact makes me feel so blue.
All I do is cut and baste.
Then take the measurement of someone's waist.

If I could sit and sew all
day,
I bet I'd learn how anyway.
I'd show the folks what I could do.
It might take time, but I'd pull through.

Clubs To Give Joint Banquet

Mothers and fathers of the FHA, FFA, and home ec. students are to be given a Mother-Daughter-Father-Son banquet in the club house, December 17.

Other honored guest will be Miss Catherine Dennis, State Supervisor, and Mrs. Will Frances Sanders, Club Adviser.

Committees were appointed at the last meeting. Joyce

Brantley and Elizabeth Glover compose the invitation committee; Edyth High and Margie Glover, decoration committee; Barbara Farmer and Octavia Beard, arrangement; Evelyn Poole and Jackie Lois Edwards, program; and Patsy Lamm, Romaine Edwards, and Maxine Medlin, finance.

The ninth grade will serve.

DEPT. OWNS NEW STOVE

For the benefit of the home ec. department, a new Westinghouse electric stove was bought by the county.

A contract provides for the replacing of the stove with a newer model each year for five years without any extra cost.
