

Cafeteria Runs Smoother Says Supervisor

"Our lunchroom is running smoother this year than last. One of the reasons for this is better co-operation as a whole on the part of the school," states Mrs. K. F. Lewis, lunchroom supervisor

Regular student workers in the cafeteria are Jean Brantley, Marie Lamm, Doris Creech, Helen Pittman, Pauline Johnson, Kitty Lou Morgan, Faye Glover, Dorothy Jordan, Bettie M. Glover, Alice Ferrell, Faylene Morgan, Beverly Jane Tapp, Ora Lee and Lucrata Lamm, Margie Peele, and Helen J. Brown.

The lunchroom staff wishes to thank Mrs. P. Van Koppen, Mrs. L. Lassiter, Mrs. Elkin Christian, and Mrs. S. S. Worthington for the flowers they lent for lunchroom use on Thanksgiving Eve, and also Freddy Lamm of the seventh grade, who drew two "attractive" turkeys on the blackboard in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Lewis asks that if anyone has heavy hens, preferably Barred Rock, to sell, please send them to the lunchroom dressed and receive dressed-hen prices. These hens will be used for the Christmas dinner Mrs. Lewis is planning.

Bailey Gets New Policeman

Wade Corbett, former deputy sheriff of Wilson County, comes to Bailey as policeman.

Mr. Corbett's years of experience as deputy sheriff fit him for his duties as a policeman.

He is not entirely ignorant of the conditions of Bailey, since he formerly lived here.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Continued from page 5

a message by wire is somewhat faster than the wireless because atmospheric pressure affects the transmission of sound waves.

All telegraph operators are under oath not to relay any part of a message received to anyone other than its owner. . . .

E. POOLE

Continued from Page 1

scene from the well-known Christmas story of Mary and the birth of Baby Jesus.

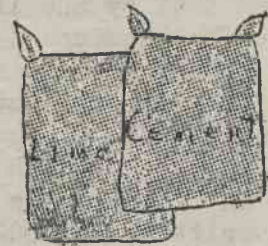

The Store

Of Uniform Service

Dealers In

FERTILIZERS

CEMENT

And Other

Farming

And Building Materials

W. H. FARMER & BRO.

PHONE-16-1

BAILEY, N.C.

