New Suits Arrive For Girls

SUSIE BABBLES forgot to mention when talking about hair cuts that most of the stinging worm cuts were sported by the basketball boys.

It has been said that Paul Dew waits anxiously for the next game with Middlesex??

At the Middlesex game, Bobby Perry was the victim of an apparent leap frog game. Bobby was knocked down while scrambling for the ball, and before he could get up, several boys were seen leaping over him.

BOBBY PERRY has been forced to turn in his basketball suit, because of water on the knee and a bad back, injuries received while playing basketball last year. Bobby has been advised by his doctor not to play basketball any more this year.

Madge Brantley is really becoming a "star basketball player". In the game with Middlesex she scored 17 out of the 18 points made.

It is reported that Dolly Bunn, former player, is coming back to Bailey.

"Receipts are holding up nicely," reports Coach Weaver; "we are taking in approximately $50 a game."

Approximately all substitutes "tried out their wings" in the the game with Rock Ridge. Every substitute was given an opportunity to play.

M. Brantley, P. Dew To Captain Team

Teams choose as their captains MADGE BRANTLEY, senior, and PAUL DEW, sophomore.

Madge has been a member of the team for three years; Paul, three years.

The team welcomes a new member to its squad, Lou Glenn Brantley. Lou Glenn played for the first time in the Stantonsbury game.

Twelve new girls' basketball suits arrived last week.

The suits are solid green with gold numerals on the blouses and gold bands on the trunks.

In contrast to the former suits, the new ones have butterfly sleeves, which do not necessitate a blouse.

For the first time, the girls wore their new suits in the game at Whitakers.

Suits for the boys, ordered two weeks before the girls', have not reached here.
