SCOUTS PLAN FOR HUTS

Plans for the structure of the Boy Scouts' hut were made by a committee designated by the Lions Club.

At the last Lions' meeting, at which time Mr. Brinson and the Scouts were guests, the plans were discussed and accepted by the Scouts.

No preparations, such as cutting logs, have been made because other materials needed may not be available.

The raising of funds for building purposes is to be a cooperative undertaking of the Scouts.

Betty Doris Sanders, a member of the Student Advisory Board of Student Life, a national high-school magazine, has been invited to write an article on some educational activity of Bailey High School. This article, if accepted, will appear in one of the spring issues of Student Life.

SUBJECT

After discussing the subject for publication with Principal M. W. Weaver and Mrs. Howard Farmer, Betty Doris has selected the cleanup campaign as the theme of her article.

Cleanup day came about as the result of Mr. Weaver's four-year pleading for better citizenship.

If the news feature is published in Student Life, it will be accompanied by pictures of the activity.

PTA Presents Founder's Day Program

Last night the PTA celebrated the Golden Jubilee of the organization by giving a Founder's Day Program, "Light For Tomorrow."

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the Parent-Teacher Association.

In 1897 the Parent-Teacher Association was organized by Alice McLellan Birney, of Georgia.

PAGENT

The pagent, in which parents, teachers, and pupils participated, featured the idea that the PTA is striving to become a light in the educational world of tomorrow.

Mrs. Rudolph Glover and Miss Millie Pearson were in charge of the program.

SCHOOL FRIENDS DONATE PICTURES FOR GALLERY

Twelve pictures, most of them copies of famous paintings, have been donated or lent the school to compose the beginning of an "art gallery" in the front entrance of the downstairs hall of the school building.

Among the contributions are "Blue Boy", "The Angelus", "Boy and the Rabbit", "The Treaty", "Mount Vernon", "Charlotte and Peter", pairs of minatures, portraits of Martha and George Washington, and "The Old Clipper Ship".

These were given or lent

Juniors Not Telling Banquet Plans

Secretive meeting was held last week by juniors as they made tentative plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Reports have it that at this meeting the juniors decided on a date for the banquet and the theme that they wish to follow but desired not to disclose any specific news concerning their plans.

At the meeting Jacqueline Collie was named chairman
