

Ninth Girl Enters Statewide Contest

Jean B. Glover, of the ninth grade, goes to Raleigh tomorrow to enter the statewide musical contest held at the Blind Institute. The winner receives a scholarship entitling her to a six-weeks study at Julliard School of Music in New York.

Jean, competing with others in her district, is entering as a lyric soprano. The contest calls for one piece selected by the judge and one by the contestant.

Contestants will be rated

See CONTEST pg. 2

Journalism Class Leaves Tues. for N.Y.

Final plans for the trip to the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention are for the students to go by car, to stop over in Washington, D. C., and to see as much of New York as possible during the hours not attending meetings.

DRIVERS

W. R. Parson and Harvey Bissette are driving the eight-member Bugle staff to New York. Both agreed to drive their cars for $50 each, but Mr. Parson gave his trip to the class in order that expenses might be reduced to enable all members to attend the convention.

WASHINGTON

The students leave Tuesday morning, March 18. They will stop over in Washington, arriving in

See TRIP pg. 2

STUDENTS TO HERALD SPRING BY OBSERVING COTTON WEEK FROM MARCH 24-28

COTTON PARTY TO FEATURE WEEK

Cotton week, the week in which everyone packs back all his woolens and wears only cottons, will be observed from March 24-28 for all high school students of Bailey. This week, sponsored by the Bugle, will have as its highlight a cotton party.

CALENDAR

Senior Play-----March 28
(Volunteer Bride)
Cotton Week----March 24-28
Teen-Age Party----March
P. T. A.-----April 10
Bugle-----April 11
Report Cards-----April 16
Jr. - Sr. Banquet-----????

Designed to help spring come in, Cotton Week will be held the week following March 21, the beginning of spring. Girls will shed their wool skirts and sweaters for cotton dresses that week, and boys will lay aside their wool shirts for cotton ones.

PARTY

During that week, according to the sponsors of the Teen-Age Club, a cotton party will be held, at which time everyone will come dressed in cottons.

The staff is offering a prize to the student who is selected as "Cotton Lady of the Week". The prize will be awarded at the party.

Local Photographers Take Pictures Of Clean-up Day

Pictures that will accompany the article dealing with clean-up day submitted to Student Life, a national magazine for secondary schools, have been taken by the Rev. I.T. Poole and A. Howard Farmer.

Mr. Poole and Mr. Farmer made three groups of pictures: first, the front hall before and after the art gallery was started; second, four different angles of a classroom; and third, students dressed in their clean-up clothes with buckets, mops, brooms, and other cleaning paraphernalia used during the clean-up drive.

The best pictures will be used.

CIVICS CLASS PORTRAY EASTER SCENE

In keeping with the spirit of Easter, the civics class has prepared a scene illustrating Easter morning. This reproduction is placed on the side of a mountain made of paper putty where the tomb of Jesus is cut.

Three women and an angel represented by dolls are standing beside the empty tomb, regarding it with awe, while the angel tells of Jesus's ascension into Heaven.