

HERE AND NOW

Bailey School has received a new school bus replacement bus No. 5. Mr. M.W. Weaver, principal, reports, "All other busses are behaving better since spring has come along."

There will be a NCEA meeting in Ashville on March 27-28-29.

"Attendance for the past six weeks has been better than recently. Every room but five has had a better attendance record," said Mr. Weaver when asked about the attendance record for the high school.

Miss Willa Lee Joyner, Nash County Health Coordinator, presented a health program at the PTA meeting last night.

During the year Miss Joyner goes to at least one PTA meeting of all the schools in the county to present some phase of health.

The ninth English class during their unit on announcements gave their talks over the public address system so that they might criticize each student's voice.

HONOR ROLL

- Lena Mae Price-----9
- Barbara Farmer-----9
- Octavia Beard-----10
- Jackie Lois Edwards ----11
- Lois Ray Pace-----11
- Clara Faye Williams----11
- Phyllis Finch-----12
- Betty Doris Sanders----12
- Except for absences
- Lenzie Morgan----- 9
- Beth Bissette-----11

TRIP

Continued from pg. 1

New York, Wednesday afternoon.

The three-day Press Convention begins Thursday. The party's tentative plans include seeing "Oklahoma", visiting Radio City, attending a broadcast, taking a four-hour tour of the city, and visiting the Metropolitan Art Gallery and the Statue of Liberty.

EXPENSE

Returning Sunday, the students will have a six-day trip, averaging about $60 per person for a net cost of $26 to the student.

CHARTS PRESENT ENGLISH THROUGH THE EYE

English department obtains charts, posters, and calendars to increase interest in and learning of English by visual means.

From donations of eleventh and twelfth English classes and funds from the school the English department has purchased charts illustrating the parts of speech, correct punctuation, one hundred spelling demons, and figures of speech.

ILLUSTRATIONS

The charts have catchy illustrations and examples that make it easy to remember certain spelling words, parts of speech, and figures of speech.

Other supplementary aids are a scroll, the Honor Roll of English Poetry, a literary map of England, a literary calendar of the year, and material for having "Fun with Poetry."

Twelve Scouts Add Honors

Six Scouts received higher ratings and six were awarded Merit Badges at the Scout Court of Honor meeting in Nashville this month.

C.H. Manning, Scott Lewis, Willard Finch, and Clayton Brock were promoted to Star Scouts; Richard Etheridge and Clayton were presented first class ratings.

OTHER RATINGS

Owen Strickland was advanced to second class.

Those acquiring Merit Badges were Willard Finch, C. H. Manning, Rudolph Manning, Ben Etheridge, Richard Etheridge, and Clayton Brock.

Boy Scouts of Middlesex won the basketball games played at Middlesex between Bailey and Middlesex Scouts.

CONTEST

Continued from pg. 1

according to age, clearness in voice and words, correctness in time, rhythm, tone, and balance. Grades will be determined immediately so that the vocal winner may be announced at the close of the contest.

As the youngest member from her district, Jean will receive more credit on this score than the others.

Miss Laurelle Stallings, of Wilson, is Jean's voice teacher and will also be in the contest.

The gay colors and illustrations of the various posters draw attention to their importance and add brightness to the rooms.