

Flower Gardens Make A Home-And A Person

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road and be a" joy to my fellowman.

Flower catalogues are arriving in all homes, challenging everyone to make his home the beauty spot of the community.

By using a few dollars for seeds and a few hours for planning, the most unattractive home, small, unpainted, will be pushed into the background by a blooming garden.

Spring is nature's most colorful season, giving evidence of new life, new hopes, and new inspirations. She, too, challenges all to join her in her parade of joy, beauty, and happiness.

This spring may every student join with all members of his household in making his home "a house by the side of the road", lightening the hearts of all passers-by.

In addition to bringing beauty to others and self, a garden helps one to make friends with and learn habits of birds, see nature in all stages of growth and all periods of the day, and gives peace to the owner.

Not God! in gardens! when the eve is cool?
Nay, but I have a sign;
'Tis very sure God walks in mine.

Thomas Brown

SUSIE BABBLES

Hey, t-e-a-m!.....

The FHA girls who served the Bailey-Castalia ball teams after the game say that both teams should go out for track too, for they can maintain quite a pace record, as proved by their marching round and round the table where punch was being served until it was all gone.

Cotton week.....

Cotton Week, sponsored by the journalism class, comes off March 24 to 28. Know what this means, girls? Lay away those tired wool skirts and sweaters and bring out those fresh, frilly, 'looking cotton dresses and skirts.

Duty Calls.....

Harry Lee Finch, Bobby Lee's little brother who starts to school next year, has proved to be quite a character. After being vaccinated in the pre-school clinic, he tugged at his mother's hand: "Come on, Mother, I've got to go home and get up my lessons!"

Odds and Ends.....

M. F. Morgan, Jr, (you know who that is) has turned into a gangster of the first degree. He flashed a new ring which squirts water into his unsuspecting victim's eyes. "Red"

Pops: Polka Dot, for the last time, will you lower that radio. It's driving me crazy.

Polka Dot: But, pops, I can't concentrate without it.

He who loveth a book will never want a faithful friend, a wholesome counsellor, a cheerful companion, or an effectual comforter.

GOALS OF PAPER

High standard of journalism

True and up-to-minute news

Use of all students' names

No gossip columns

BAILEY BUGLE
Published Monthly
by

JOURNALISM CLASS
and

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT
Bailey, North Carolina
MEMBER

C.S.P.A.

Editor-----Beth Bissette

Business Mgrs.--Jean Glover
Lenzie Morgan

Make-up Ed.---M. Lancaster

Mimeoscope Ed.---B. Eatmon

Proofreader-----E. Poole

Circulation Mgr.-B. Farmer

Vocational---Lena M. Price

Advisers--Jessie P. Farmer

Laurine T. Lassiter