

Alumni, Former Teachers, Whereabouts, And Activities

Arah Pearl Horton, graduate of '44, became the wife of Thomas Currin, Sunday afternoon, March 30.

The double ring ceremony took place in Horne's Methodist Church with the public invited.

After a year's course in Atlantic Christian College, Arah entered Rex Hospital as a student nurse.

Garner Sanders, '30, and Edna Earle Kirby, of Princeton and Smithfield, were married in February. At the present, they are living in Smithfield where Mrs. Sanders is a member of the school faculty, and Mr. Sanders is connected with the Gold Leaf Warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Watson announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Louise, on February 27, in the Woodard-Herring Hospital, Wilson. Mrs. Watson was a former teacher in Bailey High School.

Born to Sarah Britt, formerly Sarah Whitley, '45, on January 27 was a baby girl. In a letter written to Mrs. A. H. Farmer Sarah says: "Henceforth call me "Mommy". My little girl, Jeanne Rose, was born January 27 at Rex. She is the most adorable little imp and looks so intelligent it's really convincing.

'Incidentally, she weighed 5 pounds, 14 1/2 ounces then; Monday of this week, 6 pounds 4 ounces.

'It took several months to find a suitable or satisfactory name for her. We were trying to keep from naming her after anyone. Success!"

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. May announce the birth of a daughter; Betsy Allen, March 12, at the Carolina General Hospital, Wilson. Mrs. May, until this year, taught the seventh grade at BHS.

Seroba Anderson Aikens, '44, is now serving as secretary to the principal of Snow Hill School.

Iris High Bundy, '42, and her husband have moved to Bailey from their home in Charlotte.

To Cheer
A
Shut-In-Friend

Send Her Or Him Flowers
Purchased Through
MRS. W.A. GRIFFIN, REPRESENTATIVE.
TUDOR FLORIST
WILSON, N.C.