

SENIORS AS SEEN BY A SOPHOMORE
BY OCTAVIA BEARD

Now listen, the saga of seniors we'll tell,
A tale of adventure - we know this full well--
A tale filled with sorrow, with laughter, and tears,
But mostly with happiness throughout the years.

Our basketball hero is Tex Rickard (Pete)
And Madge saved our girls' games through win or defeat.
Two shadows are "Doodle" and pal Bobby Vick
And Pansy and Phyllis through thin and through thick.
Watch fair Mary Evelyn and bold Bobby Ray
And Effie and Daisy, a duet each day.
Our Janice Bunn says she got her greatest thrill
When getting John's diamond, for her dream was fulfilled.
There's studious Al, and there's cute Clara Jean,
Demare Mable Vick, and calm, thoughtful Faylene.
There's Gladys, the senior who's ever at ease,
And Odell, whose favorite sport is to tease.
Shy Ruby, smart Kitty, don't leave them behind;
Note Betty and Junior - ther're two of a kind.
We're sure that you all know petite Evelyn Finch
And lighthearted Nancy, in other words, "Chinch".
There's good-natured Keith and effusive James Ray,
Yep, wisecracking Hooksie and mischievous Grey.
That Medlin girl (Janice) just loves to have fun;
Forever seen reading - you guessed - Sharon Bunn.
Now that winds our gang up, our whole senior class,
So give them good luck, WORLD, each gay lad and lass.
