

HERE AND NOW

M. W. Weaver, principal, states that he has hopes that repairs and additions will be made in and around the school during the summer. Having wall sockets installed, painting and inside of the building, getting blackout shades where needed, repairing the roof and plaster, getting door stops and lockers, weather stripping the windows, and putting a drainage project on the yard are the improvements needed. This work will be done if the labor can be secured.

High school exams will be given May 19, 20, and 21. On Monday afternoon, May 19, the first-period-class exam will be taken by the students. Second, third, and fourth-period-class exams will be Tuesday, May 20; fifth and sixth period exams, Wednesday, May 21.

Exams for all seniors not averaging B- will be scheduled for May 15-16.

JUDGES SELECT M. FINCH, D. PACE
KING, QUEEN OF COTTON BALLThree Juniors To Graduate
At End Of Summer School

Three juniors, Edyth High, Peggy Brannon, and Margie Glover, are planning to attend Pineland College, Salemburg, North Carolina, this summer in order to graduate at the end of the summer session. Next year Peggy will go to Woman's College, Greensboro.

Each girl has fourteen units. In order to complete the required sixteen units for graduation, Peggy will have French II and science; Margie and Edyth, English and civics. Reservations have been made to enter in June.

Applicable Quotations

In high school, as all over the world, there are many different types of people. Often these people can be best described by applying to them famous quotations. A few apt quotations follow:

Bobby Glover - "And the loud laugh that spoke the vacant mind."

Mary Grey Wiggs - "As merry as the day is long."

Bobby Ray Meacomes - "A 'wolf' among ladies is a most dreadful thing."

Evelyn Poole - "Your If is the only peacemaker; much virtue in If."

Sharon Bunn - "How far that little candle throws his beams! So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Ruby Rhodes - "Silence is the perfectest herald of Derl Pace and Mildred Finch, ninth grade students, were crowned king and queen of the Cotton Ball in the gym, April 14. The ball was sponsored by the BUGLE staff and Lewis Watson and Miss Hildred Lewis, teen-age club advisers.

Style, neatness, and becomingness were the standards used by Miss Wilma Johnson, teacher, Miss Lewis, and Mr. Watson in choosing the king and queen.

DIVISION

Dividing the gym was a curtain of green and gold streamers centered with the word WELCOME spelled out in cotton. The staff, with its helpers, arranged half of the gym for dancing, the other half for games: ping pong, bingo, pegity, puzzles, cards, and hearts.

Girls came dressed in cotton dresses; boys, in cotton shirts.

Mrs. Milton Finch and Mrs. Bud Sanders served refreshments to the group.

Aiding the staff in games and decoration were Jacqueline Collie, Ben Etheridge, Willard Finch, and Ruth Farmer, students.

joy.

Millard Morgan - "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

Billy Murray - "As idle as a painted ship."

James Ray Stone - "He who loveth a book will never want a faithful friend, a wholesome counsellor, a cheerful companion, or an effectual comforter." B.B.
