

Funds To Help finance New York Trip

Of the $101.40 received at the door the night of the Coronation Ceremony, October 3, the entire amount, except for an amusement tax of one-sixth of the total, will go toward helping defray the expenses of a trip to the CSPA convention in New York in March.

All the members of the Bugle Staff attended the conference last year, and they agree that they gained many new ideas.

This year the class is again making plans to attend. A number of staff members are saving money all along for the expense of the trip. In this way they hope to have the necessary amount when the time comes to go.

As the program included a cast of a hundred or more, it became necessary to charge those participating an admission price of 10 and 25 cents. Regular admissions were 25 and 35 cents.
