

JACQUELINE COLLIE TO TAKE ART COURSE

Students' Comedy
Of Errors

Finding he loved Marion, this fiction story relates they were to be married.

Without seeing a human face, months went by.

Struggling through the hardships of life for about twenty-five years, Mama's Bank Account finally furnished all they needed.

Being broken down for five years, Brother Jupiter had another bridge built, which everyone loved very much.

Talking of the past, the story ends, leaving the man unidentified.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Henceforth be prepared for nothing short of sheer artistic wonders from the Bugle's art department. Girls will look like girls, and maybe you'll even be able to recognize some of the products pictured on our ads. Why the change??? One of our art editors, Jacqueline Collie is taking a two-year home art course by mail. The Staff
