To acquaint the student with far-away cities and historic places, Bailey High's traveler's will use this column to give sketches of interesting sights visited.
Dear Jean,

Well, here I am at last. Can you imagine a small town girl like me in the big city of New York?

Our hotel, the Times Square, is wonderfully located right in the entertainment center of New York. Practically all of the important theaters and night spots are just a block or two away from us.

Jean, you really should see the dazzling signs on Broadway. One that particularly struck me was the Camel cigarette sign with the man blowing smoke rings.

The first night we were here we saw the musical "Brigadoon". It was beautiful and I enjoyed it. The next day we took a tour of the city and really saw New York. Among the numerous points of interest were Central Park, the East Side, many homes of the rich and great, the Empire State Building, St. John's Cathedral, and the Bowery. Anyone visiting New York should certainly see St. John's Cathedral.

Thursday was also the first day that we went to Columbia University. There we met students from all parts of the U. S., and how they laughed at our Southern accents. I know you've heard that Katherine Cornell is a great actress, but you have to see her to appreciate her skill. As Cleopatra, in Antony and Cleopatra, she alternately weeps, screams, and smiles.

To me, the most enjoyable night in New York was Friday night. We attended the Highways in Melody broadcast at NEC, and then went to see the wonderful Rockettes at Radio City. The Easter pageant at Radio City was one of the most beautiful spectacles that I ever hope to see.

I can hardly wait to tell you more about my trip, but I have to close now.
