Local Man Discusses Insurance Library, Study Hall Union Relieves Congestion

Mr. E. A. Howton, local insurance agent, met with the general business class on their regular class period and gave a talk on automobile insurance.

Different phases of insurance that he explained were collision, fire and theft, property damage, and bodily injury. Wind, hail, and tornado damages were also discussed.

After the talk different members of the class asked personal questions.

The talk climaxed the study of various forms of insurance.

At the close of the year all students will be expected to be able to type 50 net words per minute.

"Long-Needed" is the modern, fully equipped combination library and study hall for high school students, declares Miss Wilma Johnson, English teacher. Here each teacher will supervise her study hall classes.

English, French, and journalism classes now occupy the other new upstairs room. Most of the equipment for publishing the Bailey Bugle has also been moved to this room.

The former library will continue to serve as the elementary library.

The old English classroom has now become the eighth grade room, and their former room has been changed into a science room. Before, all science classes were held in the laboratory.

New rooms downstairs are occupied by the two first grades. Miss Linda Vann's former room is being equipped to become a movie projection room.
