

MUSIC CLASS ENROLLS FORTY-ONE

Mrs. G. C. Johnson, piano and voice teacher at the Bailey and Mount Pleasant schools, has a class of forty-one students. Thirty of these students come from Bailey. Students range in age from five to eighteen.

At the close of the year the students give a recital. This year the Bailey recital will be in the high school auditorium on April 11 and May 5. Mount Pleasant will present a separate recital.

Top award this year will be presented to the student having kept the most accurate record. The next highest award will go to the student who has made the most progress during the year. A number of other awards will be presented students of both voice and piano.

Students Interested In Public Activities

Calls throughout the year for support of public-spirited campaigns is met by students by means of donations or gifts.

Eight Red Cross boxes were filled by all grades. These boxes were sent to school children overseas.

In the polio drive

$15 was contributed.

The senior class sent a $10 CARE package to a family in Greece.

Instead of the usual class Christmas party the seniors this year played Santa Claus to the three children of the Lynch family who had lost their home by fire.
