

SENIOR PORTRAITURES

LESTER BISSETTE

Senior class president and voted Mr. Bailey High are two honors coming Lester's way in his senior year. His dependability is attested by the fact that he has served as a class officer each year of high school and president of the F.F.A. in 1947. In his junior year he walked off with the Best All-round Medal. After graduation he plans to enter Duke, where he will study to be a minister.

MILDRED FINCH

Here comes Mr. Weaver's secretary, brown haired, blue-eyed "Micky". She has a sweet personality and is a likeable girl. Mildred was elected Miss Popularity in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. In the eleventh grade she won over all the high school classes. In her senior year she represented Bailey in the Nash County Harvest Festival and was elected Miss Bailey High by her classmates. Mildred is undecided what her future will be.

EDWARD GLOVER

Edward isn't following the general pattern of the average senior. "His English grades, "states Mrs. Farmer, "are on the upward trend." He possesses two other traits, neatness and quietness, that are admirable qualities in anyone. According to Ed, North Carolina is to have another patrolman.

DELTON DEANS

Tall, slender "Poly" to his class mates, Delton smilingly does whatever is expected of him. This trait won him the Most Dependable title in the senior class. Because of his height, 6' 3", Delton has been a star on the volley ball team for the past four years; he plays also on the baseball team. Delton says there are two things he likes to do best of all: play baseball and go to a Bar B Q supper with the FFA chapter. Delton is undecided what his future will be, but all hope for him the greatest success in whatever he takes up.

JEAN F. GLOVER

A real actress—proved by her role in the senior play—a star forward on the basketball team, a word for everybody, a future nurse that is certain to make good—what more need be said?
