

Jean Pace, winner of the Best Personality in the superlative list, pals with Joyce Morris and Jean F. Glover. She has participated in basket ball and led her team as captain in her senior years. Her captivating smile attracts the attention of everyone. This brunette with bangs plans to enter Norfolk General Hospital in September to become a nurse. With such a nurse sickness wouldn't be bad.

JOYCE MORRIS

Joyce Morris, Bugle artist and future secretary, is always seen with Jean Pace. Joyce's first year in high school brought her the Citizenship Award. Boys, you better take note; they don't come like her everyday. She's helpful; she's kind; she's attractive.

Five feet nine and every inch an athlete, this senior has been dynamite on Bailey's basketball team for three years. Leo, voted Most Athletic by his class, declares his biggest thrill came when Bailey won the Nash County Basketball Championship in '49. Smiling blue eyes, a pug-nose, and a crew cut characterize Kerby, star of the senior play, Waltz Time, and vice president of his class in '49-'50. Planning to attend the University of North Carolina, Leo wants to major in Physical Education. Who doubts in years to come, with Leo on the team, that Carolina won't lead the Southern Conference?

"She's lovely, she's engaged, she uses Ponds." Now who would this be but Wilma Bunn. No wonder she floats around school as if she were on a cloud. Wilma, a fray-eyed blonde, hears the tinkling sound of wedding bells in the distance. Our good wishes go with her, and from her calm outlook on life we predict a brilliant future.

DAYLE JOHNSON

"Runt" is neither descriptive of Dayle's size or personality. Then why the name? Ask him, 'Tis heard that Dayle has his eye on far away places with money making in view. Beware of the seniors who come a--borrowing, Dayle.
