F. H. A. CLUB REORGANIZES

After a year of not having a F.H.A. Club Mrs. Rouse, the F.H.A. sponsor, started the activities early in the fall. To begin with the club chose Doris Murray, president; Barbara Bowen, vice-president; Jan Perry, secretary; Jacquelyn Winstead, treasurer; Faye Finch, reporter; La Rue Winstead, song leader; and Eunice Perry, historian.

Early in the year the club started selling Christmas cards to make money to buy new equipment for the department. Among the items purchased were dishes, glassware, silverware, and cooking utensils.

"We have had delegates to attend the District and County rallies and hope to have someone represent us at the State Rally," declares Mrs. Rouse.
