

Mary Ann Miller

Louise Wells Shelby Jean Williamson
Mildred Finch

SOPHOMORE AND SEVENTH GRADER WALK OFF WITH

POPULARITY TITLE

Mary Ann Miller, high school winner, and Shelby Jean Williamson of the seventh grade were crowned popularity queens at the Halloween Carnival held in the gymnasium Friday night, October 28.

Runner up for the school was Mildred Finch of the twelfth and for grammar grades, Louise Wells of the fifth grade.

Crowning the queens brought to a close a contest sponsored by the P.T.A. to make funds for the school program. The contest ran for one week, and votes were one cent each.

Mrs. Brooks Privette, president of the P.T.A., crowned the queens and presented them with gifts donated from Rocky Mount stores.

Mary Ann Miller received a pin from Fox's; Mildred Finch, a compact from Jewel

Box; Shelby Jean Williamson, a pin from Baldwin's department store; and Louise Wells, a box of candy from Belk Tyler's.

The four home rooms of the highest contestants were guests of the Bailey Theater, owned by Mr. John Burgess.

Other representatives in the contest were Jane Morgan, LaRue Winstead, Geraldine Glover, Shirley Bryant, Jean Strickland, Joyce Thompson, Audrey Finch, Clara Manning, Gwen Burgess, Janet Weaver, Phyllis Manning, and Betty Beard.

 SENIORS
quality and economy
are two good words to remember

You can always find quality merchandise and economical prices

at

D.L. JOHNSON'S MARKET

Phone 40-1

Bailey, N.C.