

HAPPY CAREFREE DAYS - JUNIOR HIGH

STUDENTS SUBMIT PAPERS TO GOOD WRITING CONTEST

One senior and four juniors submit articles for publication in the North Carolina English Teacher Student Edition again this year.

This magazine comprises the best writing done by eleventh and twelfth grade students throughout the state.

Students offering papers for the Competitive Contest this year are Jane Morgan, Beverly Tapp, Barbara High, Lois Bailey, juniors, and Mavis Stone, senior.

The papers are judged and graded by English teachers of the State. Neither the student's name, the school, nor the teacher's name appears on the paper until after all judging is completed.

The magazine will come from the press around May 1.
