

Grammar Grades Vote On Officers And Grademothers

Election of class officers and grademothers highlights the activities of the elementary school.

Hoping to rejoin his classmates of the seventh grade in a few weeks is Mack Burgess, who contracted polio this summer.

To learn more about science, MRS. HILDED WRIGHT'S fourth grade has organized a science club. The officers are president, Celia Pitts May; vice president, Peggy Gay; secretary, Kay Wiggs; program committee, Elaine Edwards and Jasper Horton. Mrs. John Burgess, Mrs. T. C. May and Mrs. Atlas Wiggs are grademother. MISS KATHERINE WOOD'S fourth and fifth grade have Mrs. Julia Edwards, Mrs. Eve Pearson, and Mrs. Edward Williams for their grademothers.

MISS FRANCES GARDNER'S fifth grade opened the year by electing as class officers Audrey Finch, president; Katy Horton, vice president; Sara Peele, secretary; Faye Morris, program chairman. The class decided to have a regular class meeting every Friday and elect officers once a month. Grademothers for this room are Mrs. N. F. Finch and Mrs. W. P. Peele.

MISS DORIS HARPER'S sixth and seventh grademothers are Mrs. J. W. Ruffin, Mrs. D. L. Rhodes, Mrs. T. V. Lamm, and Mrs. J. R. Thompson.

MISS RACHEL BISSETTE'S seventh grade announces that Mrs. Louis Adams, Mrs. George Thigpen, and Mrs.

Frank McKeel have consented to be grademothers. Working with the eighth grade will be Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mrs. L. G. Deans, and Mrs. John McKeel.

The securing of five or more subscriptions for the Bugle brought awards of ice cream servings to Sonja Lamm, seventh grade; Eobby Ruffin, Kay Wiggs, and Celia Pitts May, fourth grade; Yvonne Meacombs and Martha Lane Farmer, sixth grade; Joyce Thompson and Jane Manning, sixth and seventh grade.
