

New Paint Makes Classrooms Colorful

High spirits of students opening day were further heightened by the colorful classrooms greeting them.

Throughout the building, rooms are painted pastel shades of green and peach. Rooms on the north side are painted a subdued pink to give the effect of soft sunlight. South rooms are pale green to soften the light. The woodwork has contrasting shades of green.

Halls also are brightened by light shades of green with woodwork of darker green.

A soft peach on the auditorium walls adds warmth to the large painted room. The floor of the stage is painted toast brown in imitation of a finished floor. The seats and piano are re-varnished.

Bathrooms are light green and pastel yellow with green woodwork.

Radiators throughout the building are painted silver.

Mrs. Tichenor Undertakes Training Of 75 Students

Training seventy-five students of the high school Glee Club to sing four-part harmony is the task Mrs. Tichenor has assigned herself.

According to Mrs. Tichenor, folk, art, seasonal, and popular songs will be sung.

All voices are being tested to see if the student sings alto, bass, tenor, or soprano.

Supervisor Formulates Library Restrictions

Mrs. A. H. Farmer, library supervisor, has announced the following restrictions and named eleven assistant student librarians to carry out the regulations.

Each borrower of a book is required to sign his own name on the card. In this way there will be no student maintaining that he did not have the book. Only one person at a time will be admitted to the library.

Except the librarians no one will be permitted to place returned books on the shelves or to replace cards in the books. During the first period Jan Perry and Mary Ann Edwards will take charge of the library; second period, Gordon Bissette; third period, Eunice Perry and Jane Morgan; fourth period, Sarah Peele and Ruth Williams; fifth period, Reba Murray and Carl Lee Joyner; sixth period, Doris Faye Lamm and Doris Leigh Murray.
