

Jane Morgan

Mary Ann Miller

Jan Perry

Intelligence, beauty, and a wonderful personality are combined in the senior's secretary, Jane Morgan, and how proud the class is to have her!

Since Jane entered high school three years ago, she has taken an active part in athletics. She declares that her happiest moment was scoring fourteen points in a basket ball game.

When graduating from grade school, Jane was valedictorian of her class, and for three consecutive years she has been a marshal here at Bailey. She also rated making the most progress in music one year.

BEAUTY AND BRAINS

Proof that Jane has beauty as well as brains is evident, since her class chose her a MISS EUGLE candidate for one year and a Miss Popularity representative for two years.

Although Jane isn't thinking of marriage yet, she has this to say about her ideal man: "To me the ideal man would be one who could receive honors with-

Poised, confident, well-mannered, and smartly dressed is very descriptive of Mary Ann Miller, junior, who shoulders the responsibility of class treasurer and the honor of Miss Eugle.

Mary Ann sets an excellent pattern in style and leadership which students would benefit by if they would follow. Doris Joyner out becoming conceited. He would be able to think seriously without being moody and would never be sarcastic. Above all he would have a keen sense of humor and high ideals."

COLLEGE

Jane is planning to enter Duke next fall but is undecided about her major.

Unlike the traditional reputation attributed to redheads, Jane is remarkably able to control her temper. The seniors have yet to see her lose her temper or become rude.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed" applies to Jane, as she is always there to help.

Who's ambitious, very cute, loves basket ball, takes part in all activities of tenth grade A, and has a cheerful good morning and bright smile for all? Of course you know her--Jan Perry.

She was secretary of her class in 1949, was secretary of the F. H. A. last year and was re-elected secretary of the F. H. A. this year. Jan also attended F. H. A. camp this summer.

WILLING DISPOSITION

She does anything you ask her to with a will. Whenever Mrs. Farmer simply has to do something else on English, Jan takes over, calls the roll, and teaches a very interesting lesson. Keep training her Mrs. Farmer; maybe she'll be as good as you are one day.

Another very helpful thing Jan does is keeping the library the first period. Her hobby is reading.

Jan takes pride in pleasing her classmates and is very studious. She plans to attend Cullowhee College to become a home economics teacher.

Jan is a very fine model of a typical high school girl. Lois R. Thigpen

Bobby Lamm