

Programs Differ In Chapel

Except for general appeal to the student body, no two chapel programs have been alike as each class takes its turn in performing.

Music and laughter appear to make the strongest appeal to most of the rooms, as either funny skits, plays, dramatizations, stunts or musicals have been presented in chapel since the beginning of school.

Brevity of the program, an important factor, decreases the cutting of a class. In this way, the students can enjoy a good laugh and not miss their lessons.

Locals Take Fourth Place In Parliamentary Procedure Contest

Bailey Chapter of the Future Farmers of America through a hard fight kept in the parliamentary procedure test by holding on to fourth place in the contest held in Middlesex, October 26, Tommy Glover, reporter, stated.

The eight chapters taking part in this annual event were Coopers, Red Oak, Nashville, Middlesex, West Edgecombe, Benvenue, Spring Hope, and Bailey. The president of each team drew from a hat a number to determine presiding places.

After each team had presided, the judges pronounced the winners. Middlesex walked off with the winning title and $25 in prize money; Coopers received second, and $20; West Edgecombe, third, with a $15 award.

The local chapter came in fourth with Theron Sanders, president; Eldred Perry, vice president; Ed Pace, secretary; C. D. Mullens acting treasurer; Mr. Wells, adviser, and Tommy Glover, reporter.

The prize money was donated by the Planters National Bank and Trust Company of Rocky Mount.

All members participating were served a barbecue-chicken dinner by Parkers, of Wilson.
