

F. H. A. - F. F. A. Hear Panel Discussion

The Bailey Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held its second meeting of the school year in the school auditorium.

Business was dispensed with in order to give more time to a panel discussion on teen-age problems.

Earlier in the week the students had been allowed to drop in a box questions which they wanted discussed. The members of the panel were M. W. Weaver, principal of the school; Mrs. Zettie Stott, mother of one of the members; Mrs. Laurine T. Lassiter, commerce teacher, John Wells, agriculture teacher; and Rev. I. T. Poole, pastor of the Bailey Methodist Church.

About 50 Future Farmers of America members were guests at the meeting.

Home Ec. Dept. Serves Local Lions Club

With the assistance of seven of the sixth-period home ec. girls, Mrs. Frances L. Rouse, instructor, fed 20 members of the local Lions Club in the home ec. department October 31, Mr. O. E. Dowd, district governor, was guest.

The girls assisted Mrs. Rouse with her work by decorating the department (using Halloween as a theme), donating most of the food, and helping with the serving.

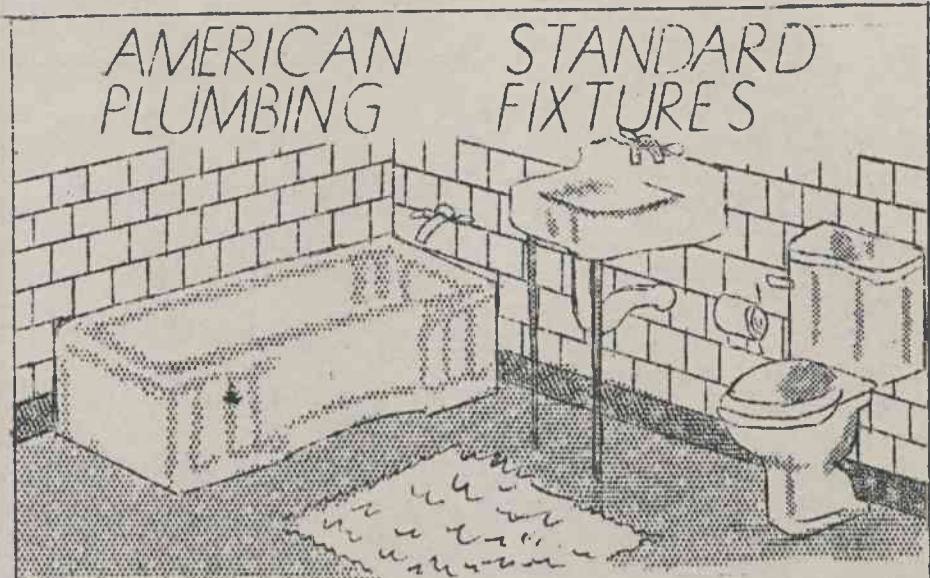

"Benefits received from the supper will be used to buy an electric mixer," stated Mrs. Rouse.

Home Ec. Teachers Entertain Superintendents, Principals

Mrs. Frances Rouse, Home Ec. teacher, and Mrs. M. W. Weaver attended the Nash-Franklin County Home-Ec Teachers dinner meeting honoring their principals and superintendents at the Nashville Hotel, November 16.

Principal speaker for the occasion was the Reverend Robert W. Bradshaw from the First Methodist in Wilson, who spoke on Spiritual Values In The Home. Afterwards, two Middlesex F.H.A. girls rendered special musical selections.
