

Fashion Trends of The Month

TURKEY OR HEN?

Color as pronounced as that of the forest after the first visits of Jack Frost is in evidence among the "fashion stylers" of Bailey High.

Striking examples are Jan Perry with green skirt and the matching weskit worn with a white blouse; the "tailored-to-a-man's-taste" blouses of Mrs. Laurine Lassiter, Miss Edith Farmer, Ruth Phillips, and Beverly Tapp; the "match-mate" sweaters of Ruth Williams; the gold-colored corduroy skirt worn by Mary Ann Miller; Jane Morgan's long-sleeved, baby-blue, Angora sweater; and the "tweedie" sweaters of Ester Finch and Pennettie Wiggs.

NECKERCHIEFS

Those attractive neckerchiefs worn gaily by Miss Idalia Oglesby, Mildred Manning, LaRue Winstead, Romaine Thigpen and Ann Medlin show that it is still the mode to add a touch of color to suits and blouses.

UNUSUAL CUFF LINKS

Something really new are cufflinks. Miss Rebecca Tomlinson has been wearing them, attractively too, on her blouses. Her cufflinks are either shaped as gold fish or a miniature picture of a horse's head.

BOYS' FASHIONS

Bailey High's boys have become more fashion-conscious of late. Gene Finch shows this in wearing his black "boys" shirt and pants, set off by a grey "windbreaker" and black suede shoes; Ray Jordan, R. O. Pace, and Charles Williams are also wearing the black suede shoes and the "zip-on" pants worn without a belt. A purple and red combination, green and white colors combined, a green-on-black combination and a gold shirt with pearl buttons describe four of the most unusual, eye-catching shirts worn by C. D. Mullens

GLASSES

Glasses holds a spotlight in fashion as well as school clothes. Bright reds, wines, browns, and gold-on-brown are the colors of the rims of the glasses worn by Mrs. Laurine Lassiter, Irene Glover, Faye Finch, Beverly Tapp and Percy Murray.

How warming these bright hues are as we battle against the vengeance of Winter, striking so early and forcefully here in the "Sunny South"!

Jackie Eragg wants to know how a turkey can be a turkey and a hen too!
