

4-H Members Present Flag To School

In observation of United-Nations Week, Bailey junior and senior 4H members presented to the school a U. N. flag at chapel.

The purpose of this program was to help people understand what the United Nations organization is and what it stands for. Some of the phases of the organization discussed were the disputes among others, the meaning of the United Nations organization, and the countries that are members of the U. N.

Those participating were Lois Jean Medlin, Celia Pitts May, Charles Williams, George Thigpen, Carolyn Finch, Henry Brantley, Mildred Manning, Louise Howell, Doris Murray, James Paul Stott, and M. W. Weaver.

Alumni of Class of '47

Three years ago the class of '47 passed through the portals of Bailey High for the last time as students.

Many are following the general trend of humanity by establishing homes. They are Pete Stone, working at the Norfolk Southern Depot, Bailey; Pansy Bissette (Mrs. Dick Ferrell, Raleigh); Janice Bunn (Mrs. John Glover, Bailey); Sharon Bunn (Mrs. B. H. High, Route 1, Wilson); Phyllis Jean Finch (Mrs. Carl Strickland, Kinston); Mary E. Glover (Mrs. Tommy Ethridge, Sims); Sarah Hooks (Mrs. Wilbur Rhodes, Stanhope); Daisy Liles (Mrs. Roman Lucas, Wilson); Faylene Morgan (Mrs. Wilton Rapier, Raleigh); Gladys Phillips (Mrs. Morley Dew, Bailey); Clara Jean Stone (Mrs. J. D. Burnette, Raleigh); Mary Grey Wiggs (Mrs. A. J. Nichols, Sims) and Madge Brantley (Mrs. Joe Mathais, Washington, N. C.)

More schooling appeals to the class, as you can see from the following students who are attending college: Keith Glover, Duke; Robert (Bobby) Vick, Appalachin; Allison (Al) Williams; and Betty Doris Sanders, E.C.T.C.

Working are Odell Manning, James Ray Stone, Nancy Finch, Effie Manning, Janice Medlin, Kitty Lou Morgan, and Mabel Vick.

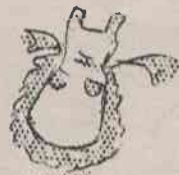

Home life proves enticing to Irvin (Junior) Finch and Evelyn Finch.

Two members of this class are now on Uncle Sam's roster: Bobby Ray Meacomes and Isaac (Dootile) Medlin.

Ruby Rhodes is nursing at the State Hospital in Raleigh.
