

Bailey Cagers Split Games; One Loss, One Win

Tied up at the official end of the ball game 38-38, Elm City's and Bailey's boys went heartily into an overtime. Gene Finch, Charles Williams, and Theron Sanders, by dropping in 2 points each, led the Bailey Cagers to a 44-42 victory over their opponents.

Bailey Scores Twin Bill

Making a come back after the holidays, Bailey scored a double header victory over Nashville, January 5.

Jane Morgan and Fannie Lou Manning paced the girls' score by dropping in 22 points each.

Mildred Manning, guard, stood out in defensive plays.

Coach Dunn's cagers dropped in 40 points with Charles Williams' 16 points making him high scorer.

Ed Pace proved his ability by reigning over the backboard and standing out in defensive plays.

With 11 and 9 points, respectively, Charles Williams and Owen Strickland led the scoring.

Defensive standouts were Ed Pace and Theron Sanders.

Not faring quite so well, the girls were defeated by Elm City.

Scoring 36 points to pace the Bailey Cagers was Jane Morgan, and Fannie Lou Manning was second high with 11 points.

Lois Medlin and Mildred Manning tied for defensive title, with neither the winner.

Basket ball, although it originated in the U. S., has spread to all parts of the globe. In Holland 12 men are on the team and the court is twice the size of ours.
