

Alumni '44

By Beverly Tapp

While most of the girls in this class preferred home making, the boys are settled in jobs and the army.

Wallace Bisette, better known as Pud, met with a fatal motorcycle accident a few years after graduation.

MARRIAGE

Now happily married are Seroba Anderson (Mrs. Bok Akin), Dorothy Eatmon (Mrs. Richard Horner), Margie High (Mrs. Dan Robert Bisette), La Verne Horner (Mrs. James Brown), Arah Pearl Horton (Mrs. Tom Currin), Rosanna Jones (Mrs. Hartwell Phillips), Maude Lewis (Mrs. Horace Cooper), Cleo Patterson (Mrs. William Sanders), Romaine Perry (Mrs. Francis Barnes), Ruth Ruffin (Mrs. Charles Hagwood), Melba Stott (Mrs. John Smith), and Jean Vick (Mrs. Roland Murray).

Teaching proves to be the second favorite among the women, for Bobbie Morgan and Josephine Griffin are following this vocation.

VARIOUS OCCUPATIONS

Different occupations claim a large number of this class--Bruce Griffin, Bobby Jones Corbett, Henry Earl Glover, Raymond Jones, Bailey; Maxine Finch, Raleigh; Joe High, West Virginia; Forrest Perry, Elizabeth City; Adolph Brantley, Mississippi; Tommy Etheridge, Spring Hope; Bobby Stott, Rocky Mount; Philip Stone, Bailey.

One member of this class, Elton Glover, is in the army.

Mary Ann Miller Becomes Bi-County Treasurer

Franklin-Nash county F. H. A. members selected Mary Ann Miller to serve as bi-county treasurer for 1951.

Other officers elected were Doris Garner, President; Jeanette Joyner, Vice president; Nancy Edwards, secretary; and Sue Manning, song leader.

F.H.A.'s To Meet

Three F. H. A. members--Doris Murray, Judy Finch, Barbara Nell Lamm--will present a program centering around vocations at the next F. H. A. meeting, March 15.

BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME
This Spring With Gloriously
Beautiful Wallpaper from

BRIDGERS PAINT & WALLPAPER CO.

125 S. Tarboro St.

Wilson N. C.

ALSO

HOUSEHOLD ARTICLES

ARTIST'S SUPPLIES

VENETIAN BLINDS

PAINT SUPPLIES

BEST WALLPAPER

TOYS & GAMES