

Sports Scope -- B. Tapp Hornets Defeat Rock Ridge Cagers

Basketball season is drawing to a close. To some this is the ending of sports for the year, but the more energetic will continue playing games.

After the tournament closes, Miss Tomlinson is organizing a girls' softball team; Mr. Dunn, a boys' baseball team.

JUNIOR TEAMS

The junior teams, composed of students from the seventh through the ninth grades, have made creditable showings this year.

Finishing the season, the boys' team was tops over the other teams in the county. Middlesex and Spring Hope were second and third, respectively. Bailey played eight games, losing only two. High scorers were Carrol Jones with 77 points, Wiley Williamson with 66 points, and Cornelius Boykin with 50 points. Jones alone made 34 points in one game.

Ratings of the girls' teams were Middlesex, first; Bailey, second; and Spring Hope, third. High scorers for the Bailey team were Billie Faye Perry, Janice Edwards, and Shirley Williams with 77, 40, and 38 points.

CHEERLEADERS

Stimulating the pep spirit at all the games, the cheerleaders and their sponsor, Miss Idalia Oglesby, are to be commended for their loyalty.

TOURNAMENT

Bailey's standing in the annual tournament is not known as the Bugle goes to press.

Morgan Leads Bailey Scoring; Boys Win

Jane Morgan, the Hornet's point-making senior, canned 23 points during the game at Benvenue, January 30.

Ruth Griffin was high scorer for the winning team with 39 points.

Mildred Manning was the Hornet's top defensive star.

Taking a different trend, Coach Dunn's Cagers defeated the Benvenue boys 35-30.

Gene Finch dropped in 11 points to attain high scoring honors.

Ed Pace, reigning over the backboard, was defensive standout.

In a non-scheduled game with Rock Ridge, the Bailey girls were the victors, 38-24.

Fannie Lou Manning paced the scoring for the girls by dropping in 17 points. High scorer for the opposing team was Winborne with 9 points.

Jan Perry played outstanding defensive ball for Bailey and Evelyn Bunn for Rock Ridge.

Following the girls' pattern, the Hornet boys sacked up 48 points to top Rock Ridge's 39. Charles Williams, Owen Strickland, and Theron Sanders were high scorers with 13, 11, and 11 points respectively.

Ed Pace was defensive star.

COMFORTING
but DANGEROUS

in case of
FIRE CALL 9111

CALL
Before fire 46-1
Horace M.
Meacomes
Insurance Service

Your Choice of Colors.....
blue, yellow, or gray

Dinette Suites
CHRISTIAN
FURNITURE CO.
BAILEY, N.C.