

Music Students Begin Public Performances; Engage In Other Work

Giving their first performance of the year, a few of Mrs. Carleton Johnson's pupils achieved a spot of recognition on the P. T. A. program, thursday night, February 8.

Irene Glover and Shirley Webb sang a duet, "Savior Hear Us We Pray," as a prayer after the devotionals.

Two other students, William Stott and Sandra Stott, played The Sack Waltz and The Imp's Dance.

NEW STUDENT AND NEW WORK

Coleen Murray, a new student, has entered into the field of piano under the guidance of Mrs. Johnson.

"Learning to play hymns are some of the assignments for the piano students. Since this assignment hasn't been in practice very long, it is hard to tell what the students really think of it, but they seem to like the idea."

Students being promoted into higher and newer books are Sarah Ann reele, Carolyn Bissette, and Janet and Sue Weaver.

For the Valentine holiday, Mrs. Johnson presented to all her students a big chocolate heart.

A student remarked that he didn't know how much he really liked or could miss K. O. race until he was hospitalized.

Mascot Gives Party For Seniors

Phil Phillips, the senior mascot, along with Mrs. C. D. Phillips, gave the seniors a Valentine party.

All refreshments, decorations, and entertainments centered around this holiday.

The title of King and Queen of Hearts went to Jane Morgan and Ed Pace.

Guests, besides the seniors, were Mrs. J. V. Morgan and daughter Martha, the other mascot, Talmage Poole, Richard Etheridge, Coach Burley Dunn, and Miss Rebecca Tomlinson, senior sponsor.
