

Alumni of '43

Although marriage took the largest toll in the class of '43, work claimed a close second place.

Elsie Mae and Josephine Pace became Mrs. Wallace Castle and Mrs. Earl Crabtree. Joyce Vick became this past fall the bride of one of her classmates, E. C. Griffin, Jr. Mary Rose Brown (Mrs. Felton Tilley), Libby Phillips (Mrs. Harold Bunn), Hildred Ruffin (Mrs. Bill Hutchins), Sarah Morgan Farmer (Mrs. Jack Smith), Janie Glover (Mrs. Wilbur Finch), and Aileen Finch (Mrs. Paul Temple) have become home makers. Two members of the class, Christine Finch (Mrs. Weldon Shuler, teacher at Sylvia), and Frances Bissette (Mrs. Eunice Peele, new owner of Peggy's Beauty Shop) decided upon marriage and a career. We understand that Juanita Brantley and Irish High are married, but we were unable to learn their married names.

Work appeals to Louis Bissette (Bailey); Samuel Glover, Hollis Haskins, John Dew, and Horace High (Raleigh); Earl Murray (Baltimore); Spencer Vick (Spring Hope); Elsie Pearl Eatmon and Harold Cooper (Wilson); Carl Walker, Jr. (Rocky Mount); and Eleanor Hedrick (Siler City). John C. Finch and Charles Morgan are farming near Bailey.

Love of home appealed to Garland Pace, Harland Perry, Fitzhugh Sanders, Charles Williams, and Herman Anderson.

A few of the students have made teaching their profession. They are Richard Stott (Franklin), Martin Liles (Whiteville), and Rachel Jones (Mebane).

The sick and afflicted appeal to Lovie A. Beard and Martha Bunn, registered nurses.

Serving Uncle Sam are Talmadge Creech (Navy), and Kenneth Farmer (Army).

Hugh Jernigan could not be located.
