

Sophomores Lead In Perfect Attendance

Leading the high school in perfect attendance for the month of February was the sophomores with a total of twenty. They are Rudolph Manning, Worth Walker, Ester Finch, Judy Finch, Fannie Lou Manning, Jan Perry, Clara Lou Stott, Geraldine Strickland, Joyce Williams, Jean Barnes, Maxine Brantley, Jackie Bragg, Billy Bunn, Lamar Finch, Pansy Rae Murray, Pennettie Wiggs, Jean Taylor, Barbara Nell Lamm, Jennings Nixon, Genevieve Glover.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS

The junior and senior classes each had fifteen students. Juniors were Franklin Brown, Gene Finch, Tommy Glover, Earl Manning, C. D. Mullen, Owen Strickland, Roosevelt Warren, Irene Glover, Margaret Glover, Julia Hooks, Mary Ann Miller, Reba Murray, Ruby Perry, Jean Wells, and Jackie Vicke.

Mavis Perry, Anne Bunn, Patsy Edwards, Faye Finch, Dixie Rae Glover, Doris Faye Lamm, Lucy Blake Stone, Beverly Jane Tapp, Barbara Wester, Clayton Brock, Jimmy Jones, Bobby Lamm, Theron Sanders, and Charles Williams were the seniors.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen were Geraldine Bunn, Patricia Dew, Vivian Glover, Rebecca Issette, Peggy Liles, Annaleen Medlin, Shirley Webb, Wayne Finch, Dwight Glover, Jimmy Harris, Rayford Perry, James Paul Stott, and Wiley Williamson.

Those making honor roll were Rayford Perry, Christine Fowler, freshmen; Mavis Perry, senior; Gene Finch, Tommy Glover, juniors; Jan Perry, Clara Lou Stott, Fannie Lou Manning, sophomores.

Except for absences, Eunice Perry, Lois Thigpen, and Jane Morgan, junior, sophomore, and senior respectively, made the honor roll.

Grades reveal the entire high school is improving in its scholastic work.

Although only one senior made honor roll, the others are striving to average a B- in order to be exempted from final exams.

Out side

Or Inside

BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME
This Spring With Beautiful
PAINT and WALLPAPER
From BRIDGERS

125 S. Tarboro

Wilson, N. C.