

Alumni '42 - - - By Doris Joyner

Work and marriage run a close tie for first place in the class of '42 with marriage winning by a small margin.

Thad Jernigan, now a patrolman in Virginia, married Madge Phillips; Charles Medlin, grocery store owner of Bailey, Bettie Morgan; and Leron Ray; Hazel Winters of Bailey.

Ruth Bissette (Mrs. P. S. Harrison, Bailey); Mozelle Cooper (Mrs. E. T. Taylor, Jr., Wilson); Rella Mae Finch (Mrs. Ollie Trent, Raleigh); Jessie Haskins (Mrs. Jaybird Bissette, Bailey); Janice High (Mrs. Bruce Jernigan, Tarboro); Elizabeth Lamm (Mrs. Joe M. Deshazo, Raleigh); Josephine Lamm (Mrs. Cecil Brantley, Lamm's Cross Roads); Lizzie Mae Manning (Mrs. Roy Jernigan, New Jersey); Marie Morgan (Mrs. John Sims, Camp Lejeune); Evelyn Stott (Mrs. C. V. Proctor, Rocky Mount); and Geraldine Vick (Mrs. H. A. Wooten, Bailey) have become homemakers.

Mary Elizabeth Jones (Mrs. James Linwood Price, Ahsokie), and Ruby Lamm (Mrs. Warren Barnes, Rocky Mount) are nursing the sick back to health.

Norman Patterson is teaching school at Moorehead City.

Jack Farmer, instructor in map making, is stationed with the army at Camp Belvoir. Braxton Honeycutt (Navy) is at Charleston, S. C. Edwin Batts, railroad switchman, and Stephen Earp, clerk, are working in Rocky Mount.

Work also appeals to Sidney Jones (cafeteria manager in Milwaukee, Wisconsin), Horace Meacomes (store owner, Bailey), Delton Perry (patrolman, Bethel), Maebelle Bissette (Mrs. Ferdie Barkley, Enfield), Magdalene Dew

(Raleigh), and Jeanleen Finch (California).

Mark Underwood married, is working on his Ph-D and teaching at Chapel Hill.

Mavis Francis is at home. Jessie Honeycutt could not be located.

Try Our Own

JOHNSON'S PURE PORK SAUSAGE

made by

D.L. JOHNSON'S MARKET

Phone 40-1
Bailey
North Carolina

