

Students Help Bear Work of School

Many students by their labor and time help carry on throughout the year the work of the school.

Without any credit or remuneration, Mary Ann Edwards, Jan Perry, Gordon Bissette, Jane Morgan, Eunice Perry, Ruth Williams, Sarah Peele, Reba Murray, Doris Murray, and Doris Faye Lamm devote an hour each per day to the library.

WORKING IN LUNCH ROOM

Using lunch period and sometimes studyhall to work in the lunchroom are Lois Jean Medlin, Doris Murray, Anne Bunn, Dixie Rae Glover, Henry Brantley Louise Howell, Audrey Pittman, Stella Jones, Betsy Eatmon, Barbara Ann Sanders, Helen Boyette, Avon Bryant, Bud Bryant, Bobby Bryant, Pennettie Wiggs, Elton Wells, George Thigpen, Virginia Richardson, and Harris Joyner.

Gordon Bissette works in the supply room every morning before school opens and Mavis Perry in the office during study-hall.

Eight students - Theron Sanders, Clifton McKeel, Roosevelt Warren, Janice Earp, Eldred Perry, Jacquelyn Winstead, Jerry Horton, and Ray Jones Jordan - get up early each morning and drive the school buses to school.

During the basketball season Clayton Brock collected the admission fees and Lucinda Stott kept the official scores, while Jimmy Harris and Carroll Jones fired the boiler.

The ninth grade health class has the project of keeping the sick room and rest room clean and neat. Each day two girls are sent to inspect these two rooms and once each week the rooms are thoroughly cleaned.

Double Honor Comes To Grandparents

That no other grandparents can match their story on graduation day is the belief of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan have a grandson, Ray Jones Jordan, age 17, graduating this year, and a great-grandson, Charles D. Phillips III, age 4, serving as senior mascot.

Mrs. Jordan, who is seventy-one years old, and Mr. Jordan, who is seventy-four, report they don't believe any other grandparent of Bailey has a similar record.

A large per cent of the seniors are getting exempted from final exams.

Your

Rawleigh dealer carries a complete line of dust and sprays to rid insects.

LELON WARREN

Bailey

N.C.

LAMM'S DEPT. STORE

Graduation dresses

