P.T.A. TO UNDERTAKE
IMPROVING GROUNDS

P.T.A. beautification program, under the direction of John Wells, was adopted for immediate action by the association at its October meeting.

Plans, worked out with the assistance of John Harris of State College, calls for shrubbery in front and on the sides of the school building. Grass is to be sowed on the small plot between the paved drive and the school. Protective fences will be placed around the corners of the building.

COMMUNITY GLEE CLUB

Miss Julia Lawrence reminded the members present of the weekly practice every Monday night for the Community Glee Club.

Tonight the finance committee will sponsor a Halloween Carnival, their sole program throughout the year for raising funds for the P.T.A.

The membership committee reported 222 paid members for this year.

Mrs. R. G. L. Edward's eighth grade and Miss Rachel Bissette's seventh grade presented the evening program.

Capturing the usual two dollars, one for the elementary grades and one for the high school, were Miss Rachel Bissette's seventh grade and Mrs. L.T. Lassiter's juniors.

Escorts To Crown Queens Tonight

Seniors Anticipate
Success For Play

Expecting "a hit", the seniors are practicing, every night possible, their play, 'The Darling Brats', to be staged November 2. Miss Edith Farmer, senior class sponsor, plans during-school-hour practices next week.

The class has completed 21 posters announcing admission at 25 and 35 cents.

By the night of the play tickets and programs will be prepared.

Amateur Program Opens
Evening Entertainment

Highlights of tonight's program will be the crowning of junior and senior "Miss Halloween" and the amateur contest. The celebration will be in the gymnasium at 10 o'clock.

The junior queen will be the winner of the ten queens representing grades one through seven; the senior queen, the winner over six queens representing the eighth through twelfth grades.

QUEEN

The junior queens are Rachel Farmer, Vanice Kay Bissette, Judy Smith, Kay Thompson, Sandra Stott, Carol Grice, Christy Finch, Roselyn Turnage, Martha Lane Farmer, Katy June Horton.

Catherine McKeel, Shelby Jean Williams, Annalean Meddlin, Tanya Glover, Colleen Murray, and Mary Ann Miller are senior queens.

COSTUME PRIZE

A prize will be given for the best costume worn tonight.

Miss Julia Lawrence is sponsoring the amateur contest consisting of talents displayed by the students.

In the gymnasium there will be the usual Halloween side shows, stands, and cake walk.

No admission will be charged for either program.

Student Body Fails
To Support BUGLE

Only 143 students out of an enrollment of 559 are subscribers of the Bugle, the other 113 subscriptions go to the alumni, advertisers, friends of the school, exchange publications.

Principal Weaver says, "It seems to me that each family should receive the Bugle. It can keep in touch with the school better through its paper than any other source."

The complete subscription list adds up to 256. Twenty-six go to the alumni; twenty-nine, to advertisers; fifty-two to friends of the school; and six to exchange publications.
