

Glee Club Attends Cossack Chorus

Members of the glee club visited the Platoff Don Cossack Chorus in Wake Forest last Thursday night for the purpose of hearing a world famous chorus.

A special feature of the Russian chorus, made up of 26 male voices, is their expert use of falsetto voice, giving at times the impression of a women's chorus and then immediately returning to their rich baritone voices. Their rendition was in Russian language.

They have been in the United States for 13 years and have recently become American citizens.

The chorus has given about 1600 programs.

"They had excellent voices and could use them in a hilarious and amusing manner", says Miss Julia Lawrence. "I wish every member of the glee club could have gone."

The Teen Ager Speaks--by La Rue Winstead

Teen-agers, do you realize that this is twerp season? Yes, the month of October is twerp season and it is here and has almost passed without us doing a thing about it.

Twerp season, you know, is a time when the girls can ask any boy that she wishes for a date. Of course there may be some cases that the boy might--should I say--"stay home and baby sit," or he might "have so many lessons" that he can't possibly make it; nevertheless, girls, ask.

Maybe there's a certain boy that you girls have a crush on and you have always wanted to date him, well now's your chance. You probably know how to ask for a date, but let courtesy be your key note.

Now, girls, act your age; you know how. This is a time for a little fun, not foolishness.

Boys, maybe next time

I'll bring you out in the spotlight, but this time the girls should be spotlighted, because, we are the ones who have to ask for the dates. Just be kind and accept; we pay all expenses.
