

Have You ----- Lois Thigpen

HEARD?--Miss Farmer declaring she feels like Shakespeare's daughter? (The seniors have been studying Shakespeare in her room at dinner.)

Mary Ann Miller is an excellent hunter and rifle shooter? (La Rue Winstead also likes to hunt.)

Audrey Pittman started walking to a ball game? (She really likes basket ball, doesn't she?)

A small boy handed Eunice Perry a dollar folded like an airplane while she was collecting lunch money.

C. D. Mullens collected money for the family who had three children killed by the explosion at Middlesex?

All juniors who stay out are fined if they do not have a sufficient excuse?

Of a school bus driver washing a passenger's face? No one ever really helps someone else without helping himself?

Mr. Pittman has acquired quite a name in the Bailey district as a coach. (They really like you, Mr. Pittman.)

Miss Oglesby calling Wayne Lamm "twenty-three" cents? (He owes the school library some money, evidently.)

No one is rich enough to do without a neighbor?

WONDERED?--What Santa Claus would bring you? (If you are as mean as I am; nothing!)

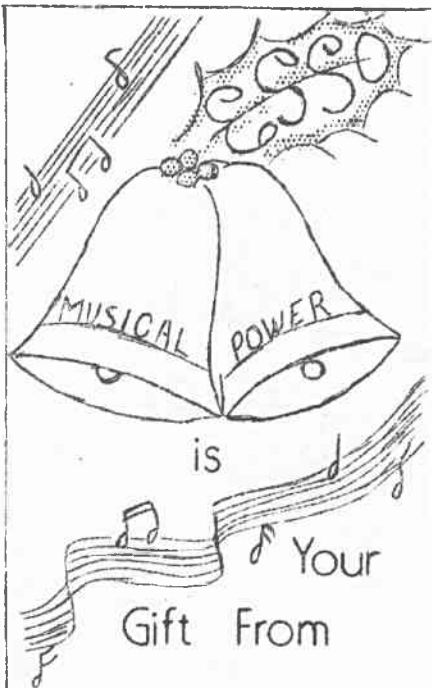

DISCOVERED?--Our teachers are the best to be found.

Bailey has two very good basket ball teams?
