

The Teen-Ager Speaks --- La Rue Winstead

Prepared for Weather

What to give him or her for Christmas is a good question to discuss in this column this month.

Whether a boy or a girl, something to wear is always a nice and appropriate gift. For a boy, a heavy knit campus sweater is suitable. Maybe a shirt and a tie, a pair of personalized cuff links and key chain to match would be marvelous.

There are so many more things to choose from for girls than there are for boys. As mentioned before, you can never top something to wear. Costume jewelry, is a real nice gift for a girl. Whether you want expensive or inexpensive gifts, you can always find them in costume jewelry. For the more expensive gifts, housecoats are wonderful. Belts, kerchiefs and vanities are also splendid, simple gifts.

Nothing too personal nor too expensive is a good rule to follow, and will keep us on the side of good taste, according to

Student Body Selects Cheerleaders

Out of the eight girls trying out for cheerleaders, the student body voted for Jackie Lamm, Betty Lou Glover, Tanya Glover, Jean Barnes, Arbadella Davis, and Carolyn Finch.

All contestants demonstrated their cheerleading ability at several games before each class cast its ballot.

Emily Post.

By the way, girls, have any of your boyfriends asked for a large photograph of you for Christmas? If so, I'm sorry; I can't help you. I'm in the same predicament.

Bruce Finch maintains the scout motto "Be Prepared." He is frequently seen boasting his "Long Flannels" to a group of admiring spectators. That is--male spectators.
