

The Typo Error

The typographical error is A slippery thing and sly;
 You can hunt it 'till you're dizzy,
 But somehow it will get by.
 'Til the forms are off the presses
 It is strange how still it keeps,
 It shrinks down in a corner
 And never stirs or peeps.
 That typographical error
 Too small for human eyes
 'Til the ink is on the paper,
 When it grows to mountain size
 The remainder of the issue
 May be clean as can be
 But the typographical error
 Is the only thing you see.

Enrollment Shows Loss Of 21, Gain Of 7

Comparison of the high school enrollment figure now with that at the beginning of school shows a loss of 16 students.

At the opening of school there were 187 enrolled in high school. Now there are only 171.

Ten freshmen, eight sophomores, four juniors, and one senior have left high school. Three freshmen, one sophomore, and three juniors have entered from other schools.

Mrs. Kermit Lewis invites any parent to come and eat lunch here with her child.
