

Chapter Attends Bi-County Rally

Fourteen members of the Bailey Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America attended the Nash-Franklin F. H. A. Rally at Franklinton, Saturday, March 1.

Prior to the general session for the day, a musical program was presented by the Franklinton chapter. The opening ritual was led by the president, Doris Garner, of the Red Oak chapter. Devotionals were given by Middlesex with Franklinton extending greetings. Mary Ann Pace, treasurer, of Bailey gave the financial report, while Red Oak had charge of presentation of candidates.

During new business, the Nashville chapter extended an invitation for the rally next year. The invitation was accepted.

The program, a panel discussion on "Boy-Girl Relationships", was arranged by the Franklinton group.

ATTENDANCE BANNER

About 230 delegates from the county chapters attended, in addition to teachers and guests. An attendance banner was presented the Middlesex chapter for the largest number present according to enrollment.

Those representing Bailey were Mary Ann Pace, Shirley Creech, Jackie Bragg, Fannie Lou Manning, Amy

Lou Horton, Pansy Murray, Barbara Rhodes, Mary Ann Edwards, Louise Davis, Annie Ruth Brown, Pennettie Wiggs, Wanda High, Jeroma Eatmon, and Geraldine Strickland, accompanied by Mildred Manning, Idalia Oglesby, and Frances Wilson. Patricia Chappell, Nashville, won the presidency for next year in the secret ballot election of officers. Other electees were Betty Ann McGee, Franklinton, vice president; Shirley Creech, Bailey, secretary; Janet Campbell, Benvenue, treasurer; and Loucrecia House, Red Oak, song leader.

Delegates To Attend Tea At Gov. Mansion

Six F.H.A. chapter girls and the club advisor will attend a State F.H.A. Convention at Hugh Morsør High School in Raleigh, and later attend a tea at the Governor's Mansion, given by Mrs. Kerr Scott, who will receive the guests.

Those attending the meeting and tea are Fannie Lou Manning, Mary Ann Edwards, Mary Ann Miller Pace, Judy Lamm, Jan Perry, Clara Lou Stott, And the advisor, Miss Frances Wilson.

The tea will be held immediately following the convention.

Get Clothes
Ready For EASTER

Rely On

BAILEY DRY CLEANERS