By Jackie Vicke

From month to month this column has been devoted to fashion news and etiquette for girls. However, this month it shall be used for the boys' benefit.

DRESS SUITS

For informal, or semi-formal dress, a dark suit is always appropriate. The favorite colors are navy blue and black. A distinctive note can be hit by wearing a dark coat with light pants, or a light coat with dark pants. A light tie or handkerchief against a dark coat adds to the suit.

BANQUET ATTIRE

The suitable flower to wear at banquets with dark, light, or "two-tone" suits is carnations. Some chose red, some, white. The White carnation is the one that should really be worn with the black, navy-blue, tan, or grey suits, while the red carnation should be worn with the dress suit, a white dinner jacket and black trousers. While speaking of flowers to wear to banquets, boys, don't forget: If you're taking a girl, you are expected to buy her flowers. It is up to you to find out the color of her dress, so that the flowers will not be in deep contrast. Also, the girl is expected to purchase your lapel corsage. You should let her know, too, if your suit is to be dark, or if you're planning to wear a white dinner jacket.

Health-Bond
 SUPER FIRM MATTRESS

The right angle to real sleeping comfort is the straight line body support the HEALTH BOND mattress gives you.

This super-firm mattress prevents muscles from kinking and knotting up as they will do on a mattress that is too soft or all sagged out.
