

"The homes of tomorrow
are in the hands of the youth of today"

Teen-Agers' Frolic
(Dance) April 30

F.H.A.er's Convene At State Convention

Peggy Liles, Jan Perry, Fannie Lou Manning, Judy Lamm, Clara Lou Stott, and Mary Ann Edwards were the Bailey F. H. A. members among the 1237 delegates representing over 300 chapters at the State convention this month.

The high light of the convention was a talk, "The Other American Way of Life" by a Mexican good-will ambassador, Senor Roberto de la Rosa.

Homemakers To Attend Camp May 26-31

Ten F. H. A. girls have applications which enables them to attend F. H. A. camp, May 26-31, at White Lake.

Each Chapter in the state will send delegates according to enrollment.

Those planning to attend from Bailey are Wanda High, Billie Faye Perry, Judy Lamm, Paula Ann Horner, Shirley Williams, Sue Bunn, Janice Edwards, Carolyn Finch, Betty Lou Glover, Judy Finch. Alternates are Amy Lou Horton, Shirley Webb, Patricia Dew, Romaine Thigpen.

The camp site is owned by the State chapter of Future Farmers.

Senor Rosa Tells of Mexican Life

Below are a few of the many interesting facts stated in the talk given at the State F. H. A. Convention.

The speaker declared he had never tasted Mexican chili until he came to the United States. He also said Americans rush and wait when going anywhere while Mexicans take plenty of time but arrive at the same time.

Their daily schedule runs like this: 9:00-12:00, work; 12:00-3:00, lunch with big ceremony which includes a siesta; 3:00 until 6:30, work.

All weddings and college teaching take place in the home. Also, Mexicans wear clothes very similar to ours instead of the supposed Mexican bright costumes.

This will probably interest the teen-agers since it concerns dating.

After a boy sees a girl he likes at a special ceremony held in the park each night, he follows some distance behind, when she returns home, to learn where she lives. For about two weeks, he parades up and down in front of her home each night about 25 or 30 times. If the girl likes

(SEE MEXICAN LIFE PG. 19)

Before Any
EASTER OCCASION

Be Sure
To See

BAILEY
DRY
CLEANERS

