

A Little Thoughtfulness Will Be An Asset To Carryey Between The Covers

Do you like for someone to mar the cleanliness of your home after you have laboriously cleaned it? Of course not. Yet, that is exactly what is happening in the halls of this school.

Carriey, the janitor, begins his work of sweeping and cleaning the halls about two hours before school is out in order to complete his duties before dark. What is more discouraging to find that, after finishing a hall, someone has spilled pop-corn on the floor and walked away, leaving the pop-corn to be scattered and crushed by other students?

For Carriey this means repeated work. As for the guilty, it plainly spells out to others their lack of consideration for the other fellow.

It would only take a minute to pick up the grains and throw them in the waste boxes. Such a step would indicate we are thoughtful and do care for the appearance of our school.

Let's Greet One Another At Church Sunday

Flowers, along with the fruit trees, bursting into bloom certainly show signs of spring. We usually think of Easter when spring comes around.

In Matthew, chapter 28, verse 6, we find these words: He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. That is the TRUE meaning of Easter: A risen Christ, signifying eternal life for those who believe in Him.

Whether our Easter outfit is the most striking or our corsage the most unusual does not matter. What is important is that we have our spirits lifted up by hearing the Easter music and attending an Easter service in one of our churches Sunday Morning.

Typists Make Possible Publication Of Bugle

Without the co-operation of the typing students, some of whom do not take journalism, the staff wouldn't be able to publish the Bugle once a month.

Although these students don't get credit for journalism, they are given credit in typing. Even so, this typing demands extra hours of work for them.

The journalism class appreciates these students' giving of their time and energy and knows that the readers of this paper join in saying, "Many Thanks".

There is only one rule The truth will stand with-for being a good talker: out a prop; a lie will not learn to listen. stand with a million props.

He who waits to do a great deal of good at once, Live only for today, and will never do anything. you ruin tomorrow.

Books are the "pearls of wisdom"; for this reason, they should be selected with much care and thought. This column has endeavored to guide its readers toward making these choices wise ones. Reading can completely alter an individual's outlook on life; thus, the correct books to read are those that change for the better.

Before graduating from high school, a student should have set for himself the goal of having read a well-rounded assortment of novels, biographies, and non-fictions. Books that help meet that requirement include Dickens' "David Copperfield"; Thackeray's "Vanity Fair"; Galsworthy's "Forsyth Saga"; St. Exupery's "Wind, Sand, and Stars"; Bok's "Americanization of Ed Bok"; Booker T. Washington's "Up From Slavery"; Helen Keller's "Story of My Life"; W. A. White's "Autobiography"; Thorpe's "The Peabody Sisters of Salem"; Wismar's "The Immortal Lovers"; as much as possible of Shakespeare's writings; and others.

Eunice Perry

BAILEY BUGLE
PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY COMMERCIAL DEPT.
and
JOURNALISM CLASS
CO-EDITORS--

L. Winstead-L. Thigpen

Jackie Lamm-Jackie Vick
Ann Edwards-Doris Joyner
Ruby Perry-Eunice Perry
Reba Whitley-Wayne Lamm
ADVISORS--

Mrs. A. H. Farmer

Mrs. L. T. Lassiter