

Everyone Has Part In Publication

Many people have the misconceived idea that this paper is the result of the work of the staff.

While the final stages of the paper does lie with the staff, there could be no paper without the support of advertisers, subscribers, typists, students, parents, and friends of the school.

To each of these may we take this opportunity to say "Thank-you" for helping us achieve the honor of Medalist rating and to take the Washington trip.

Every Success To The Bailey News

Up until the eventful date, May 2, 1952, the Bailey Bugle was Bailey's only medium of news. On that date, the first issue of The Bailey News was printed, Bailey's first real newspaper.

The Bugle wishes to extend its heartiest congratulations and best wishes for the success of this new enterprise.

It has been questioned whether The Bailey News would hurt the school paper. The Bugle staff thinks not. We feel there is a need and a place for both.

Anything that brings progress to the community brings just that much progress to the school.

How To Get What You Want Out Of Life

How does one go about getting what he wants out of life? A good question. Let me give you my answer.

First, give life all that you have, everything that you possess, and all that is in you. Think about what you have to give to life. Everyone has some physical, emotional, and spiritual gifts. The correct use of these will cause life to yield to anyone, including you.

Have you ever heard Admiral Ernest J. King's statement that was made in the days when the resources of the Navy were inadequate? He simply said, "Do the best you can with what you've got".

Don't whine and make excuses; just use what you've got and you'll surely be a success. R.T.

BAILEY BUGLE
PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY COMMERCIAL DEPT.
and
JOURNALISM CLASS
CO-EDITORS--
L. Winstead-L. Thigpen

Jackie Lamm-Jackie Vicke
Ann Edwards-Doris Joyner
Ruby Perry-Eunice Perry
Reba Whitley-Wayne Lamm
ADVISORS--
Mrs. A. H. Farmer
Mrs. L. T. Lassiter

My Garden

My garden is a beautiful dream
With roses blooming red and white;
The posies are little faces that shine
With the gayest of human delight.

The flowers smile up at the sun
And wave as the wind passes through.
They welcome every drop of rain
And drink each drop of dew.

As I stand in my garden of flowers
And watch them wave and nod,
I am thankful for each little flower
That blooms as a gift from God.

Shirley Webb

Between The Covers

As soon as school is out, let's all grab the opportunity to get ahead with our reading. It is fun to read light material while traveling or sitting in the shade at the beach.

Magazines are perfect entertainment for travel, but only the best are worth the time. Reader's Digest, Cornet, Saturday Evening Post, Life, Look, and Time are a few good ones.

These, too, are good to read while on vacation. More serious reading may be desired by some. One may like to read books he has seen portrayed in movies: Lorna Doone, Jane Eyre, Little Women, and others.

Remember that the perfect graduation gift is the perfect book--The BIBLE.

Every public library is a storehouse of knowledge and opportunity. May the readers of this column meet often in the town's public library this summer.

Eunice Perry